insteadies the steering. Rmary should never discontinue eveling for any length of time, because there is no better tonic; but if they are compelled to for some reason, they should immediately adopt some other form of exercise. To LEAVE an insufficient length of handle-bar stalk in the tube, though less disastrous to the machine, is more dangerous to the rider, for the handle bar is ant to come out into his bands, occasioning an awkward spill.

When you hear a grinding, clicking noise at the chain-wheel, don't jump to the conclusion that your chain is slack. Try the main bearings. They may have worked sufficiently loose to throw the wheel out of line and cause the unpleasant noise of the cogs.

CYCLING strengthens the muscles of the ankle immensely, and is nearly always beneficial after a sprain, that is to say, when the ankle is recovered sufficiently to enable the sufferer to hobble about on it. To use it immediately after a sprain is suicidal, and will only prolong the period of convalescence. - Golden Days.

ELECTRICAL SPARKS.

Tgz trolley has invaded the land of the Pharaohs. Cairo is to have a sys-

ALL harm from trolley railroads has been prevented in Budapest, Hungary. There the roads are in cuts below the street surface, where pedestrians never

THE first electric light was produced by Humphrey Davy, in 1808. The first practical dynamo was built in 1807, and was first used to run an electric light at the light-house of South Foreland, Eng., December 8, 1838.

A GRATE fire, produced by electricity, is a recent London invention. The "coals" are formed of a combination of fire-clay and chemicals; they are almost instantly made to assume a red-hot glare, and the illusion is perfect.

A LONDON firm, which has manufactured eight of the eleven cables linking the United States to England. makes fifty-five miles of cable each twenty-four hours.

WASHINGTON had a slow, deliberate way of speaking. His voice was low, but strong, his words were always well chosen and his tones carefully modu-

Pours who sing of a "shoreless sea" leave nothing in their imagination for the waves to break on and for ships to arrive at and land whale oil after a long voyage.

N. O. Picayune.

purifying and enriching the blood.

complaint of all.

THE LATEST. Tailing ples are now sold by a New York baker. Turpuso is the latest British bastitution to be threatened. The prince of Wales has declared that he will put it

"FULL DINNER" is the latest of the city restaurant signs, and seems an improvement on "regular dinner" and so on. It is pleasantly suggestive of a square meal. Tun boys of Sandwich, Mass. and those of the adjacent town of Bourne. are in clover, engaged in a game called "heads and tails." The first-named town pays twenty-five cents bounty for muskrats' heads, and the other pays the same bounty for the talls.

A HYPNOTIST club is in a bad way in Richmond, Ky. One of its members so hypnotized a majority of its members that they each loaned him money. Now he no longer visits the club, and the other members think hypnotism is extremely silly and only a temporary delusion.

IN A HUMOROUS VEIN.

It never occurs to a boy that he will some day knows as little as his father. -West Union Gazette.

Ir a man is big and fat, and keeps his mouth shut, he can bluff nearly anybody.-Atchison Globe. "My investments," said the speculator in Oklahoma, "depend largely upon my belief in a future state."—Yale Rec-Some people are afraid of a gun, nevertheless they will trifle with an umbrella which is liable to go off at any time .- Adams Freeman. You can't be sure that a man is lazy simply because he gets another man to do his work for him. He may be only shrewd .- Somerville Journal.

THE FRENCH REPUBLIC.

THE mud baths of Dax, in France, have existed and been more or less celebrated since the time of the Romans. M. MAURICE BOUCHER has finished his translation into French of all the songs found in Shakespeare's works.

Paris has 165 branch post offices, to all of which the mails are shot from the general post office, through pneu-M. Zona has been elected president of the Societe des Gens de Lettres for the fourth time. The election was

"I am too much of a rentleman, sir, to tell you what I think of you here," exclaimed the irate politician, "but if I over catch you in congress I'll call you a liar, sir,"—Chi-

Tun man who is always impugning the We don't know what we can do till we try, and then we frequently and that we can't.—Pack.

Spring Makes Me Tired

To many people Spring and its duties it makes pure, rich blood. It gives mean an aching head, tired limbs, and strength to nerves and muscles because throbbing nerves. Just as the milder it endows the blood with new powers weather comes, the strength begins to of nourishment. It creates an appetite, found in the deficient quality of the meet the change to warmer weather.

loaded with impurities and loses its the only true blood purifier prom-richness and vitality. Consequently, inently before the public eye to-day.

as soon as the bracing effect of cold It has a record of cures unequaled in air is lost, there is languor and lack of the history of medicine. It is the medi-

Hood's Sarsaparilla does all that it is claimed to do." You can take and best spring medicine because it is Hood's Sarsaparilla with the confident the greatest and best blood purifier. expectation that it will give you pure

It overcomes that tired feeling because blood and renewed health. Take it now.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the Only

True Blood Purifier

The cure will be found in cine of which so many people write,

· BY GAPTAUN JACK GRAWTORD.

1964. BY THE AUTHOR - ALL

CHAPTER V.-CONTINUED

"Well, my child, you must not forget that you have but his own unsupported evidence as to the truth of his story. Were you my daughter I would certainly advise you to not place too implicit confidence in the truth of what he told you. He may be, as your father hinted, a fugitive from justice. The criminal element, you know, dear, is not drawn entirely from the lower strates of society. It is not wrong, I think, for you to manifest an interest in his artistle work, loving art as you Go, but you must not forget, my child, that you do not know him, and that he is but a soldier in the ranks and far beneath you in social standing. You had best tell your father all you know of your new acquaintance, and I can assure you that should Brown's story prove to be true no one would move more promptly than Col. Sanford in endeavoring to sever the bond of enlistment that he might be restored to his proper sphere of life.

But you forget, Mrs. Colby, that he said he would not under any consideration have his term of enlistment shorthis wishes in the matter. If it should be brought to the notice of your father that the young man is not only inflicting upon himself really unmerited punishment for a mistake of his youth, but is by his action depriving the business world of a talent which would contribute to its progress, he would scoff at the man's exaggerated ideas of penance and lose no time in restoring him to his proper station. May I be frank with ou, my child, and tell you that in my opinion Mr. Brown, or Mr. Thornton, is a very, very foolish young man. But, my dear girl, you don't know how your story has interested me. I wonder if it can be true? And to think he is in Capt. Colby's troop, too. May I tell the captain?"

Do you think it would be right, Mrs. Colby? Mr. Thornton did not enjoin secrecy-in fact, he said he had nothing to conceal from the world, yet were his story known it might enforce upon tasteful to him.

That is true, my dear, but really I feel that his captain should know it. "Very well. You can tell Capt. Colby and I will tell papa all I know of have to discuss between ourselves, and how doubly delicious if it prove true that Private Brown is really Mr. Edward Thornton and a gentleman in every way our equal in life. But a word of motherly caution, child. You must not permit your girlish enthusiasm to arouse in your young heart a feeling of aught but simple friendship

A slight blush mantled the cheeks of the young girl at these parting words. After she had gone Mrs. Colby sank into a chair and carefully weighed every feature of the strange story, and was yet deeply engrossed in thought when the captain entered.

"George," she said to him, "do you know anything of Private Brown of

"Brown? Yes. He has several times attracted my attention. He is a HUMAN ENDURANCE COULD STAND NO splendid young soldier, I believe, always unusually neat in personal appearance, and at times when he has been on duty as orderly at my quarters I have noted his intelligent language and gentlemanly bearing. He distinguished himself in a noticeable manner in several of our brushes with a vacancy. Why do you ask, my dear?" "I have a very remarkable story to tell you, George, if you will promise me that you will never divulge it without my permission, not even to Brown portant secret. Will such a pledge in any manner conflict with my duty as nn officer?" "Not in the least, my dear, or I would

Then I promise. I am all attention.

She told the story as Alice had related it to her, and the captain's eyes opened wide with astonishment. By Jove, wife, I am inclined to believe the man has told the truth. I recall many of his actions which go to corroborate what you have told me. I must keep my eyes on him in future." Alice went at once to her father and related to him the story Brown had told her. The old man at first evinced must not place any eredence in the wild cock and bull stories the soldiers tell. child, and let the well ones take care of

"Did I do wrong, papa, in listening to him and showing my interest in his

If this man has interested you with his skill with the pencil I am glad of it. Your life is cast amid very sober surroundings, little one, and anything that affords you pleasure and helps you to while away the dull hours has my full approval. If a big, honesteyed Newfoundland dog should come to you for recognition it would be no wrong for you to pat him on the shaggy head and call him pet names. If a private soldier interests you and posseases intelligence enough to treat you as becomes your station in the world above him, amuse yourself with him all you desire. Even listen to their fairy stories if you wish. Soldiers love to benst of what they might have been had they not been crowded into the army by some remarkable circumstances. Their romances are all bosh, unshine, all frothy bosh." CHAPTER VL

On one of his daily rides he overtook her in the river bottom just as she had reined in her pony to make the ascent of the steep hill leading to the fort.

for riding, Miss Sanford," he said. "It has indeed, Mr. Vandever, I think the New Mexico climate cannot society is open to severe criticism," he replied. "The native people are but half civilized and the Americans are and gentlemen of the army are compelled to exist amid such uncongenial surroundings."

the territory," she replied. "I have a Vandever" number of valued friends among the "Captain. good people of San Marcial, the town just above the fort, both native and American, and I have always found them to be congenial, whole-souled, courteous neighbors. You will modify know them. Even were we cast away a thousand miles from civilization, I am sure we could be a happy com-We are a little world in ourmunity. selves Mr. Vandever."

"A rather insignificant world," he re-"You can almost enumerate its occurred between you?" population on your fingers. A dozen or so officers, and half as many ladies." "And several hundred soldiers," she world, save as slaves to do our bidding. dies and gentlemen. I sometimes think it debases a gentleman to be Her face flushed with anger, and

"Lieut. Vandever, clothes and rank do not make the man. Indeed, in my own experience, I have known the gaudy uniform of the officer to cover far less manly instincts and actions than I have noted beneath the plain garb of hill, and touching the rein she galloped unceremoniously away, leaving and started to his quarters in a far from pleasant frame of mind. As he hastily turned a corner of the stables he ran into Private Brown, who was hastening thither on some errand. The shock threw the lieutenant to the the soldier the man in whose company he had often seen Alice Sunford, his rage was great. Springing to his feet he hoarsely shouted:

MORE.

"What do you mean, sir? How dare Brown respectfully saluted him and "I beg your pardon, sir. You turned the corner in such haste that you ran into me before I could get out of your am not sure that you did not purposely run against me.'

Brown's blood boiled at the epithet applied to him, and the expression of belief that some sympathizing comanger on his face increased the officer's rade had sent the viands from the troop ones even for a superior to use toward an inferior in rank. I am not a liar, sir, and my manhood revolts when such a term is applied to me when I am found in the culinary department of powerless to resent it."

menial cur?"

eous rage, and, losing all control of his the dim light of the grated window temper, he sent a well-directed blow into the lieutenant's face, knocking him from his feet.

izing sense of what he had done. In astonished to hear him whistling a civil life he would have been applauded | merry air. for so promptly resenting an intentional insult, but in the army it was different. Violence offered by a private soldier to an officer is a most Lieut. Vandever was industrious in serious offense, and one which under acquiring a knowledge of horseman-army rules demands severe punish-ship, for a call to field duty might be ment. While it is true that the officer's conduct toward him was highly reprehensible and such as would lay liable to official investigation, that the river he frequently met Miss fact did not in the least mitigate his is a mystery. Sanford and sometimes rode beside her. Her treatment of him was Vandever's abuse he would have been THE man w ward him an air of modest reserve proper official quarter and justice which warned him that any resump- would have been done him, but he has tion of foppish gallantry would meet allowed his anger to override his bettewith her disapproral. On several oc- judgment, and now he was in for i.

ly conversing, and it shocked him to act before seeking the details? Would she not now regard him as a quarrelterms of such seeming familiarity with some bully, and deem him unworthy of her friendship? The thought troubled him, and as he paced back and forth in the forbidding gloom of the cell he was very miserable. His gratitude toward the girl for taking so kindly an interest in him had ripened thought that the maiden could grant to | into a love which seemed to consume him. Although no word indicative of his new feeling toward her had ever been breathed in her presence, he felt that she must instinctively know that he loved her, and her eyes had on more than one occasion told him that her He politely saluted her by raising his friendship toward him was gaining an cap, and she acknowledged the saluta-intensity which might some day develop into a far more tender passion. In his dreamy moments he had even dared to picture a future wherein their mutunl love would light the path down which they wandered hand in hand, be surpassed in loveliness in the whole | and now by one rash act he may have blighted the bud of affection which was swelling toward bursting in her young heart-have blighted it so comletely that even the sun of future vindication might fail to warm it into life

In the midst of his gloomy reflections the heavy cell door swung open, and Capt. Colby entered. "Brown," he said, "what was the trouble between yourself and Lieut.

"Captain, I have been guilty of a most serious offense, and in the light of calm reflection I do most deeply regret it. I was grossly insulted, sir, and in my rage I lost sight of the officer and saw only the man who was heaping inyour views of them when you come to dignities upon me. My position as a soldier was forgotten, and I resented the insult as I would have done in civil life-as any gentleman would have

"Will you tell me without any reservation or palliating coloring just what

Brown related all the details in a truthful manner. While he felt that in the eyes of anyone possessing a sense of justice his blow would seem justifiable, he admitted that he had been guilty of a serious infraction of The riff-raff of the land must not be army law, and averred that he would mentioned in the same breath with la- humbly submit to any punishment a court-martial might inflict upon him.

"I am sorry this occurred, Brown, very sorry. Your conduct ever since you joined my troop has been most exemplary, and I have hoped to soon be able to offer you promotion. I fear that this matter will go hard with you. Col. Sanford is a most severe disciplinarian, and an assault by a private oldier upon a commissioned officer will assume most grievous proportions in his eyes. He will insist upon your on this question are so well known to the officers of the post that those who try you will, should you be convicted, feel that severe punishment must follow. I can only hope the palliating circumstances may bear due weight with both the commander and the members of the court."

He passed out, leaving Brown again alone with his bitter thoughts. Lieut. Vandever lost no time in deavoring to poison the minds of his brother officers against his assailant. He pictured him as a brawny bully of not have his hair cut short. There is a pugnacious nature, and loudly averred that a long term of years in a Odessa. military prison was the punishment he erred. His words here little weight, however, for the young lieutenant had become most thoroughly disliked by every officer in the garrison. While there was no outward demonstration to establish the fact, there was not one of them but secretly rejoiced that he had been so promptly chastised for his unofficerlike conduct. And what of Alice? That young lady acted in a most remarkable manner when the details of the affair reached her ears through Mrs. Colby. She did ing, threw the rein to an attendant not turn pale and weep and wring her hands in inconsolable anguish in the conventional way. Not she. A great smile of satisfaction spread over her pretty face, a glad look increased the usual brightness of her eyes, and she poured out the pent-up fervor of her ground, and instantly recognizing in soul in giving emphasis to the one word:

She thought not then of rank or station nor of any punishment that her friend might be called upon to endure, but only saw a righteous blow struck at insolence and insult by the strong arm of manhood. It was not at all unusual for the commanding officer's daughter to send some of the surplus from her own t he to soldiers who might be confined in You lie, sir, when you say I ran the guardhouse, and when the orderly into you. It was your damnable care- from headquarters brought a platter of lessness that caused the collision. I entables to the sergeant of the guard and said it was for Private Brown of B troop, it was passed in to the prisoner without a questioning word. With the messroom he set it aside until he should feel hungry, and when he at last uncovered the contents of the dish and noted that it contained pieces of pie and cake and other delicacies not to be the soldier quarters, a glad smile spread "Don't you dare talk back to me, you over his erstwhile troubled face, for he secondrel! How dare you hint at re- knew it must have come from Alice. of the dish he discovered that it had Human endurance could stand no been concealing a folded piece of pamore. Brown's face paled with right- per, and eagerly seizing it he ran to and read these words:

"You would have been less a man in my eyes had you acted otherwise. Indinire you for re-senting an insult from one lacking in munhood.

His heart throbbed with delight, and he pressed the precious missive to his lips again and again. Alice approved his action, and he did not now fear any punishment that might be fer his offense. His one overshadowing fear had vanished through the iron grates of his prison window as he read the blessed words traced by her beloved anger cooled and he awoke to a real- hand, and the sentinel at the door was

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

Colorado Cliff Dwelling. The most wonderful cliff dwellings in the United States are those of the Mancos, in a southern Colorado canyon. Some of these caves are three to six hundred feet from the bottom of the perpendicular sides of the canyon wall and how their occupants gained ingress

THE man who seeks happiness must Highest of all in leavening strength .- Latest U. S. Gov. Food Report.

Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

Economy requires that in every receipt calling for baking powder the Royal shall be used. It will go further and make the food lighter, sweeter, of finer flavor, more digestible and wholesome.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 WALL ST., NEW YORK.

PEOPLE OF ALL CLASSES.

Mn. CLEVELAND's income is said to be between $90,000 and 100,000 a year. BILL Cook, the noted desperado, who s under a forty-five year sentence, has years.-Tammany Times. been put at work making shirts in the Albany penite tiary.

CAPT. JOSHUA SLOCUM has sailed from East Boston in his forty-foot sloop Spray for an all around the world voyage. Capt. Slocum is a noted adventur-

MME. YANG, wife of the Chinese minister at Washington, is progressing so finely in English that she is quite able presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1886.

A. W. Gleason, Notary Public. their native tongue.

MRS. ANN DAFFIN, who died recently at Philadelphia, was present at the coronation of Queen Victoria. Mrs. Faffin was born in Hull, England, in Hall's Family Pills, 25c. 1806, and came to this country in 1888. PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S chief recre ation at Woodley is a drive in the after-poon and a game of cards in the evening. The president is a good whist player, and is also fond of pinochle. J. L. HAND, of Pelham, Ga., is known as the watermelon king. He plants several thousand acres of seed every spring, and in the summer season ships hundreds of carloads of melons north. PRESIDENT ANGELL of the Humane society offers a prize of $30 for the best ction of instantaneous photographs of docked and over-checked horses, with the names and addresses of their EUROPEAN PICK-UPS.

In the British isles during the present century seven instances have been trial by court-martial, and his views and to enable them to have hot and cold baths at all seasons of the year.

buy and preserve the mills, in order to control the flow of the stream. The original grant of the mills was made by King Edward VI.

PRINCE TOUMANOFF, a student in the University of Odessa, has just been expelled and ordered to leave town within forty-eight hours, because he would consternation among the students of

When You Want a Thresher,

Horse Power, Swinping or Wind Stacker, Saw Mill, Self Feeger, or an Engine, ad-dress the J. I. Case T. M. Co., Racine Wis. They have the largest Threshing Machine plant in the world, and their implements may be relied upon as the best. Business established 1842. Illustrated catalogue mailed free

"On, mamma," said the small boy from the city when he first saw a robin, 'come look at this little spacrow with a red flaune! shirt on."—Harper's Young People.

Piso's Cure is the medicine to break up children's Coughs and Colds.—Mrs. M. G. Biunt, Spragee, Wash., March 8, 74. CHURCH fairs are devices to make the gones pay for the pusturage of the shoep.-Ram's Horn. HUMAN science is an uncertain guess.

TEXAS JUSTICE-"You admit you stole the pig out of the pen!" Colored Prisoner— "Yas, I admits I stole de pig, but I wuz hongry, an' I didn't have nuffin' ter eat." "Pork reacher," said the judge, with tears in his eyes, as he chalked him down for two

STATE OF ORIO, CITY OF TOLEDO,

STATE OF CHIO, CHY OF TOLKDO, LUCAS COUNTY.

FRANK J. CHENEY makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. CHENEY & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo County and State aforesaid and that said firm will pay the sum of one hundred dollars for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot becured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CUSE.

Sweet to before me and subscribed in my

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and DUKANE-"What is the Order of Cincinnati, Gaswell!" Gaswell-"I was never in the town more than twice or three times.

but then I gathered the impression that usual order was 'beer and bologna.' Pittsburgh Telegraph.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success. The successes achieved by men and things are not always based upon merit. But a success well merited and unprecedented in the annals of proprietary medicine, should theseever come to be written, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a botanic medicine, dis-covered nearly half a century ago, and the leading remedy for and preventive of mala-rial, rheumatic and kinney complaints, dyspepsia, constipation and biliousness. GENT—"Mademoiselle looks mere beautiful every day!" Lady—"You have been telling me so for a good many years; what a horrid fright I must have been to start with."—L'Illustration.

When Traveling

recorded in which the bride has married the best man by mistake.

Naples is to build permanent sea boths to accommodate 43,000 persons, fevers headaches and other forms of sickfor sale in 50 cents and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

Three points on the shore have been selected for the sites.

The last miller of Dee is dead, but the Chester Town council has voted to just one shad."—Puck.

-≅GIVE AWAY<.

Absolutely free of cost, for a LIMITED TIME ONLY.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, By R.V. Pierce, M. D., Chief Consulting Physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Faffalo, a book of over 1,000 large pages and 300 colored and other illustrations, in strong paper covers to any one sending 21 cents in one-cent stamps for packing and postage sulv. Over 60,000 copies of this complete Family Doctor Book already sold in cloth binding at regular price of $1.50. Address: (with stamps and this Conpon) World's Dispensage Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

A. N. K.-II. WHEN WRITING TO ADVECTIONS PLEASE

X of a de afte of For Sprains and Bruises and all Painful Accidents, St. Jacobs Oil in ALL KINDS OF SPORTS . . . Is the professional's first choice of a remedy always.

Pearline saves rubbing. That means a good deal besides easy work, even in house-cleaning. Paint and wood-work oil-cloth, etc., are worn out by rubbing.

Pearline cleans, with the least labor, and without the least harm, anything in the world that water doesn't hurt. Send Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, it Back and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, be honest—send it back.

JAMES PYLE, New York.

CONSUMPTION

can, without doubt, be cured in its early stages. It is a battle from the start, but with the right kind of weapons properly used it can be overcome and the insidious foe vanquished. Hope, courage, proper exercise, willpower, and the regular and continuous use of the best nourishing food-medicine in existence-

Scott's Emulsion

-the wasting can be arrested, the lungs healed, the cough cured, bodily energies renewed and the physical powers made to assert themselves and kill the germs that are beginning to find lodgment in the lungs. This renowned preparation, that has no doubt cured hundreds of thousands of incipient cases of Comsumption, is simply Cod-liver Oil emulsified and made palatable and easy of assimilation, combined with the Hypophosphites, the great bone, brain and nerve tonic. Scott & Bowne, New York. All Druggists. 50c. and $1.

Prominently in the Public Eye To-day. Beecham's pills are for biliousness, bilious headache, dyspepsia, heartburn, torpid liver, dizziness, sick headache, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, loss of appetite, sallow skin, etc., when cause of all of them. Go by the book. Pills roc and 25c a box. Book FREE at your druggist's or write B. F. Allen Co., 365 Canal Street, Annual sales more than 6,000,000 boxes.

WALTER BAKER & CO. PUPE, HIGH GRADE COCOAS AND CHOCOLATES HIGHEST AWARDS Industrial and Food EXPOSITIONS In Europe and America. Unlike the Duich Process, no Alka-

SOLD BY GROCERS EVERYWHERE WALTER BAKER & CO. DORCHESTER, MASS.

* HIGHEST AWARD * WORLD'S FAIR. PREPARED

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

KENNEDY'S DONALD KENNEDY, of ROXBURY, MASS., Has discovered in one of our common kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred caused by constipation; and constipation is the most frequent cases, and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty unles of Boston. Send postal card for book.

pasture weeds a remedy that cures every

A benefit is aiways experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the right quantity is taken. When the lungs are affected it causes shooting pains, like needles passing through them; the same with the Liver or Bowels. This is caused by the ducts being stopped, and always disappears in a week after taking it. Read the label.

If the stomach is foul or billour it will ause squeamish feelings at first. No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it. Dose, one tablespoonful in water at bed-

THE RISING SUN STOVE POLISH in cakes for general blacking of a slove. THE SUN PASTE

Morse Bros., Props., Canton, Mass., U.S.A. AUENIO HIG BASE-BALL MITT, or $1.00 for 1 pair of the party like GLOVES or MITTS, will outwar all the Colores of MITTS, will outwar all the Colores of MITTS, will outwar all the Exchange Street, Et PFALO, N. Y.

'It could be done without consulting him a notoriety which would be dis-

Mr. Brown." What a delicious secret we four will wane and "that tired feeling" is the | tones and strengthens the stomach and and sympathy for Private Brown." digestive organs, and thus builds up The reason for this condition is the whole system and prepares it to blood. During the winter, owing to Hood's Sarsaparilla is a medicine various causes, the blood becomes upon which you may depend. It is the Apaches last winter, and I have him listed for promotion when there is

"Well, it must be a startlingly im-not exact it of you. have never had occasion to give him extra notice further than I mentioned, yet in the light of this revelation I can onsiderable interest in the recital, but at its conclusion said: "All nonsense, Sunshine, all bosh. You Look after the sick men in the hospital.

work? "My little Sunshine could not do made at any moment in the then unsettled state of the Indians. In his daily rides about the post and down always polite, yet she maintained to- justified in seeking redress in the learn to take short steps.

ensions he had passed by when berself and must suffer the consequences. and Private Brown were sitting together, bending over a sketch or quiet- Would she pass hasty judgment on his see the daughter of the commander on a man in the ranks. In his estimation, the private soldiers were mere soulless machines, which moved only at the official beck and call, but puppets in exalted hands, and a lump of indignant resentment stuck in his throat at the a vulgar private the sociability she denied him.

What would Alice think of him?

tion with a bow and pleasant smile. "It has been a beautiful afternoon

The climate is all right, but the rough boors, and it does strike me as again. being somewhat severe that the ladies

"O, you are too hard on the people of

"O, the soldiers cut no figure in our obliged to command such fellows." turning her cle : blue eyes full upon his face she replied in biting words:

the private soldier.' They had reached the summit of the him biting his lips in confusion. He rode to the stable and, dismount-you run against me in that manner?"

sentment to your superior officer, you Raising a slice of cake from the bottom

CHAPTER VII.

A number of the stable attendants who had witnessed the altercation ran to the spot and assisted the officer to rise. His nose was bleeding profusely from the blow, and in obedience to his command a guard was summoned and Brown was marched away to the guard Scated on a bunk in a gloomy cell his